Presentation Title:

Presenter's Name:

In accordance with the AACME Essentials and Standards for Commercial Support, it is the policy of the American Academy of Continuing Medical Education (AACME) to insure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all its individually sponsored or jointly sponsored educational activities. All faculty participating in any CME supported activities are expected to disclose to the activity audience the existence of any significant financial or other relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) or providers of any commercial services discussed in an educational presentation and or with any commercial supporters of the activity. Faculty must disclose significant support or substantial financial relationships with commercial entities in relevant situations whether or not there is direct commercial support of the CME activity. The intent of this policy is not to prevent a presenter with a potential conflict of interest from making a presentation. It is merely intended that any potential conflict should be identified openly so that the listeners may form their own judgments about the presentation with the full disclosure of facts. It remains or the audience to determine whether the presenter's outside interest may reflect a possible bias in either the exposition or the conclusions presented.

To ensure proper disclosure, identify all significant relationships with manufacturers of products, providers of commercial services, and/or potential supporters of this activity whether or not relevant to your presentation.

Check appropriate statement:
